

Accountable Communication for Teams

Audience:

This program is designed for teams that want to increase their effectiveness in the areas of leadership, communication, and decision making.

Objectives:

Accountable Communication provides participants with a framework for developing a world class team. Participants discover and address the personal or team blind spots that prohibit growth and productivity.

Takeaways:

Our two day program teaches teams to be more self-aware, tolerant, and authentic through highly engaging activities. Participants learn to identify and resolve common workplace issues. Group activities uncover the team's barriers to high performance and breakthrough results so that team members can individually and collectively focus on high performance.
